SITUATION

Within the village, there is a church, and public house and is positioned at the midway point between Sherborne and Yeovil to the south and the A303 to the North. Local facilities can be found at Queen Camel while both Sherborne and Yeovil provide between them, an excellent range of cultural, recreational and shopping facilities. Sporting, walking and riding opportunities around the area, with golf clubs at Yeovil and Sherborne. The region is well known for both its public and privately funded schools. Communication links are good with mainline rail stations at Sherborne, Yeovil and Castle Cary.

OUTSIDE

To the front of the property is a garage with parking on a gravel drive for three cars. An original gateway opens to the front garden that is beautifully manicured and landscaped to include shrubs, trees, lawn and patio area. To the rear the garden is again well landscaped with a patio area, large pond, a lawn and a summerhouse - A gardener is included in the rent.

DIRECTIONS

What3words///shrub.secretly.skewed

Heading from Sherborne to Queen Camel, after the church take the Rimpton Road on your right. Follow the lane and proceed over the railway bridge, the turning for the lane leading to the property is the first on the right and park on the gravel area in front of the garage.
