

Bush & Co.

6 The Grange, Glebe Road, Cambridge

Guide Price £450,000 Leasehold - Share of Freehold

About the Property

The Grange is a sought after development located in a peaceful, tree-lined setting just off Hills Road, benefitting from secure gated car parking. The location is within walking distance of Addenbrooke's Hospital and the Biomedical Campus, and just one mile from Cambridge Railway Station with fast links to London King's Cross. Nearby amenities include shops, restaurants and the well served leisure park.

The property is a well proportioned first floor apartment offering fine views across the beautifully kept gardens at the back. Updated by the current owner to include oak wood flooring throughout most of the property. Sold with the advantage of no upward chain and benefitting from a share of the freehold.

The central hallway leads to all rooms with the living room and kitchen being at the back, overlooking gardens. The living room offers plenty of space and light and has a door to the modern fitted kitchen, with its range of wall and base units teamed with integrated appliances. The principal bedroom is a large double room with fitted wardrobe and a modern three piece ensuite shower room. Bedroom two is another generous room with fitted wardrobe and there is a stylish three piece bathroom with shower over the bath as well as fully tiled walls and floor.

Outside - The rear communal gardens are superbly kept with lawned areas complemented by mature trees and shrubs. There is an allocated car parking space.
