101 Caernarfon Road is a modern four-bedroom house, with a clean, bright design running throughout the entire property. The house has been furnished with new furniture and a gloss-effect kitchen, giving the property a warm and inviting appeal. There is also a stylish living room, with plenty of seating and a wall mounted TV. The bathroom is bright, with a large shower cubicle and extra shelving storage. All bills are included with the rental cost of this property, making it a great option for Bangor University students. Situated within walking distance of many basic amenities, this property is close to the train station and just ten minutes away from the University itself.
