Wellfield

Charming and characterful semi-detached home enjoying elevated views over the village green and towards the picturesque church.

Situation

Situated just off the Highstreet in the heart of Lyminge, a bustling and popular village offering a wide range of local amenities including post office and two general stores, hairdressers and barber, popular tea rooms, Chinese restaurant with takeaway, public house, two doctors' surgeries, church, pharmacy and sought-after pre-school and primary school. There is also an active community hall, sports field, bowls club and library. Bus services run through the centre of the village, providing easy access to the south, to the Channel Tunnel town of Folkestone and the Ancient Cinque Port Town of Hythe on the coast, and to the north to the University and cathedral city of Canterbury. These all offer an excellent range of shopping, recreational and educational facilities, including top ranking Grammar and Independent Schools, together with high-speed main line train services to London St. Pancras. A little further afield will be found the expanding business centre of Ashford, from where the capital may be reached in some 37 minutes.

Upstairs, a generous galleried landing leads to three well-proportioned double bedrooms, all with built-in wardrobes, two of which enjoy particularly fine views. The luxurious family shower room has been beautifully updated in keeping with the period of the property, creating a superb blend of old and new.

Outside

To the rear, the property enjoys a paved courtyard garden, enclosed and well stocked with established border beds, creating a private and peaceful setting with views towards the attractive field church. To the front, an elevated garden provides a wonderful vantage point to sit and relax while taking in the far-reaching views over the village field and surrounding area. In addition, there is a garage which has been adapted to provide a highly useful storage or hobby room, offering excellent versatility.
