Wilfred Street, SW1E

Situated on the fourth floor of Aviary House, this impressive three-bedroom apartment offers generous contemporary living space, three en-suite bedrooms and two private outdoor areas, ideally positioned in the heart of Westminster.

Extending to approximately 1,215 sq ft, the apartment features a reception and dining room framed by curved floor-to-ceiling glazing. The open-plan layout provides a sleek finish with access leading onto a private terrace.

The property is ideally located close to St James's Park, Buckingham Palace and Victoria's shops, restaurants and transport links. With Underground and mainline stations nearby, travelling around London is easy. The private terrace, additional balcony and en-suite bedrooms make this an attractive home in a prime central location.
