In Detail

A bright and characterful two bedroom hall-floor period conversion on one of Crystal Palace's most prestigious leafy roads, complete with its own private mature garden. Ideally positioned just a short walk from the vibrant Triangle and close to Crystal Palace station, the property benefits from a private entrance, high ceilings, and exceptional natural light throughout.

The flat has its own external entrance, opening into a useful internal lobby for coats and shoes, leading to a hallway. The heart of the home is the welcoming reception room, featuring defined living and dining areas enhanced by large sash windows overlooking the garden. The spacious main bedroom offers elegant floor-to-ceiling windows and fitted wardrobes, while the versatile second bedroom works perfectly as a single room or a dedicated home office. The bathroom has been recently upgraded, and all windows renewed with quality double glazing.

The property enjoys its own secluded, and colourful mature garden, offering a peaceful retreat with established planting and plenty of space to relax and enjoy warmer days and evenings. As is common with many conversions in the area, the private garden is just a few steps away, around the side of the house.

Situated moments from the independent cafés, restaurants, and boutique shops of the Triangle, close to both Crystal Palace and Anerley stations (offering direct links to London Bridge and Victoria), and a short stroll from the open spaces of South Norwood Lake & Grounds, historic Crystal Palace Park and the charming Stambourne Woodland Walk — a peaceful green route linking the Triangle and surrounding neighbourhoods.
