£450,000

Caer Delyn, 2 Ffordd Bryn Y Garn

Henllan

This attractive four bedroom detached stone house is situated in a sought after village location, offering a wonderful blend of character and modern comfort. The property features beautiful oak details throughout, two inviting multi fuel stoves, and spacious accommodation ideal for families or those seeking extra room to entertain. The layout is thoughtfully arranged to maximise natural light and practicality, with generous living areas and four well-proportioned bedrooms. Located close to a local Welsh school, football pitch, thatch roof village pub, post office, golf club, and church, the home enjoys a strong sense of community and convenience.

The property enjoys generous gardens to both the front and rear, with the majority laid to lawn and convenient access all the way around the house. Mature hedging, traditional stone walling, and established boundaries create a private, secure setting with a sunny aspect, ideal for relaxing and entertaining. A patio area provides the perfect space for outdoor dining, while off-road parking adds every-day convenience. There is also on street parking as well as a driveway for two vehicles. Completing the outdoor space is a useful stone outbuilding, offering excellent storage or potential for a variety of uses.
