The Indoors

Accessed via the building's beautifully maintained communal entrance halls, the apartment opens into a generous central hallway that immediately showcases the exceptional scale synonymous with Victorian school conversions.

At the heart of the home lies an extraordinary open-plan reception room, where dramatic ceiling heights rise far above oversized original school windows. Natural light pours through the apartment throughout the day, illuminating rich dark timber flooring and emphasising the sense of volume rarely found in modern developments.

The reception space comfortably accommodates distinct living and dining zones, creating an ideal environment for both entertaining and everyday family life. Adjacent sits the contemporary kitchen, thoughtfully designed with granite worktops, Bosch appliances, ample storage and open shelving, all finished in a timeless palette that complements the building's historic character.

The principal bedroom is wonderfully tranquil, framed by tall windows and impressive ceiling heights, with ample space for a king-sized bed and extensive storage. The second bedroom is equally versatile and currently serves as a nursery, though it would work perfectly as a guest bedroom, home office or children's room.

A particular advantage of the apartment is the presence of two bathrooms. The principal family bathroom features a full-sized bath, while a separate shower room provides additional practicality for busy households and visiting guests.

Throughout the apartment, the combination of towering proportions, original architectural detailing and contemporary finishes creates a home that feels both characterful and effortlessly functional. The current owners have further enhanced the space with bespoke shelving, upgraded appliances and smart home technology including a Google Nest heating system.

The Outdoors

The apartment sits within secure gated grounds, hidden away from the surrounding streets and offering an unexpected sense of calm in the heart of De Beauvoir.

Residents enjoy access to beautifully maintained communal courtyard gardens, complete with seasonal planting, established flower beds and charming seating areas. It is a wonderfully private setting, perfect for enjoying a morning coffee, reading a book in the sunshine or catching up with neighbours.

The development is known for its welcoming community atmosphere, with residents regularly coming together for seasonal events and maintaining an active residents' group that contributes to the unique character of the building.
