A Beautifully Presented Detached House Boasting a Modern Interior

Offers In Excess Of £510,000

We Say...

This beautifully presented house is situated in the sought after cul-de-sac of Freemans Walk, Pembroke within walking distance to local shops, schools and the historic Pembroke Castle. The home, built in 2012 has a contemporary design throughout and is laid over three floors.

The ground floor provides an entrance hall with a WC and store cupboard, a living room to the front and a further family room room which can be utilised for an study. Through the double doors from the hallway opens up into an open plan kitchen/living/dining room fitted with a range of modern units and central island, a feature log burner and two sets of double doors leading out to the garden. Accessed via the kitchen there is a utility room with access into the garage and to the rear garden. The ground floor benefits from underfloor heating throughout which runs from the log burner back burner, solar panels or gas integrated into thermal store for hot water. The first floor boasts a lovely landing area with four double bedrooms, one with an en-suite bathroom. The family bathroom has a separate bath and shower. On the second floor is the master bedroom with velux windows, a walk in wardrobe and a further bathroom with a double sink and a walk in shower behind the sink wall. The property benefits from a neutral decor throughout, with white tiles throughout the ground floor.

Externally, to the front there is ample driveway parking in front of the garage with side access leading to the rear garden. The south facing rear garden is laid over two levels, the first is paved providing a great seating/entertaining space, with the lower level being laid to lawn. In the right corner there is a further decking area.

Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the style, layout and size of this spectacular family home.
