THE PROPERTY

Positioned on North Street in the heart of historic Winchcombe, this charming Grade II Listed Cotswold stone cottage presents an exceptional opportunity to complete a bespoke refurbishment. With the most demanding prep work already completed, the property seamlessly combines authentic period character with a blank canvas ready for final fitting and finishing.

The accommodation retains striking heritage features, including original flagstone flooring, beautifully sandblasted exposed timbers, and a focal inglenook fireplace. On the ground floor, a characterful sitting room leads through to the kitchen, which opens onto a low-maintenance, south-west facing courtyard garden benefiting from side pedestrian access. The first-floor layout features two distinct bedrooms alongside a spacious bathroom positioned to the rear.

Significant initial work has already been carried out, including full interior replastering, sandblasting of original timber features, new lighting, and partial rewiring. An incoming buyer is perfectly placed to customise the final finishes to their exact taste, requiring redecoration, plumbing in radiators, and installing a bespoke kitchen and bathroom suite. Offered for sale with no onward chain, this represents a rare chance to create a beautifully tailored period residence in a prime central location.
