

£2,100 Per Month

205A Henley Road, Reading, RG46LJ

Situated on the sought-after Henley Road and just a short distance from the marina, this newly constructed home offers modern, flexible living accommodation along with parking for three vehicles, a private enclosed garden, and a generous patio area.

The lower ground floor provides versatile space, featuring a bedroom that could also serve as a home office or study, together with a bathroom and convenient downstairs WC.

The bright and spacious ground floor comprises a well-appointed kitchen and an attractive reception room, creating an ideal space for both everyday living and entertaining.

Upstairs, the property offers further well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom, completing this thoughtfully designed home.

With its excellent location, contemporary finish, and adaptable layout, this is a superb property well suited to a range of tenants.

