This fabulous home is a marvellous example of a 1920's detached home with large room proportions, high ceilings and commanding kerb appeal. Positioned behind mature hedging and a sweeping driveway sitting alongside a charming lawn. A large porch leads into the beautiful entrance hall setting the characterful tone of the home with picture rail, exposed beams and a turning staircase. A reception room sits to either side of the hallway and an open-plan dining kitchen runs across the rear with stunning views over the rear garden. The living room is a light and spacious dual-aspect room with inglenook fireplace and doors leading out to the rear garden. The dining room is another generous space with a serving hatch into the kitchen showcasing the properties history. A utility room sits off the kitchen and leads into the integral garage, and a WC is positioned off the entrance hall.

To the first floor there are four well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom with a separate WC sitting adjacent. Off bedrooms two and four is a quirky storage room that sits within the eaves and provides a super space that could be converted to a fabulous en-suite or dressing room. The entire home is beautifully presented and a family could move in and make themselves at home right away. There is also superb opportunity to develop the property into a larger family home due to its sizeable plot and location, subject to planning.

The gardens are beautiful and offer a truly private aspect with mature trees and hedging providing a leafy backdrop. The rear garden is mainly laid to lawn with a covered patio sitting off the living room.
