About The Property

Set within a rural setting with only a select few neighbouring properties, this Four-bedroom barn conversion is full of character and offers flexible living options. The property is approached via a shared driveway leading to a private parking area, with various outbuildings offering excellent storage or workshop space.

The entrance hall is filled with natural light, thanks to glass doors at both the front and rear, offering an uninterrupted view straight through to the balcony and beyond. A striking curved slate staircase sits to one side, with a useful under-stair cupboard and a ground floor w/c. Wooden flooring adds warmth and enhances the character of the home.

To the left, the lounge provides a comfortable space to relax, featuring quarry tiled flooring and a log burner within a statement fireplace and another set of doors leading directly onto the rear balcony. On the opposite side of the hall, the kitchen diner offers a practical and sociable space, complete with a substantial fireplace housing a second log burner, a range of fitted base and wall units, and a Rangemaster oven with a gas hob. A stable door leads outside to the balcony, making it easy to enjoy the surroundings.

From the kitchen, an inner hallway leads to a shower room and a utility room, where the boiler and washing machine are located. This section also provides access to a double bedroom, making it an ideal self-contained space for multi-generational living or guest accommodation. A separate door leads to a sheltered outdoor area to the side of the house.

Upstairs, the spacious hallway leads to the master bedroom, complete with a built-in cupboard, en-suite shower room, and direct access to the top balcony. A further door from this bedroom leads to an external staircase. Across the hall, there is an office room with a built-in desk, while the remaining two double bedrooms each feature built-in storage and one has an en-suite. A family bathroom serves this side of the house.
