LOCATION

Rowan Garth is located off Riplingham Road in Skidby. From Cottingham approach Skidby following the road towards Little Weighton, as you start to exit the village Riplingham Road is on the left.

Skidby is a highly sought after East Riding Village with a good local primary school and the famous Half Moon pub. Cottingham is located approximately 2 miles where a further range of local amenities and facilities can be located. Cottingham High School serves the village and is located on Harland Way. Cottingham wears the crown as the UK's largest village and has main line railway station connecting to further afield, a good range of local shops, Co-op and Aldi supermarket and restaurants and pubs. There is the local market which takes place on a Thursday. Hull is located approximately 9 miles away and the historical market town of Beverley just over 4 miles. A great village for families with ease of access to local areas and motorway networks.
