11 The Quay

Ilfracombe, EX34 9EQ

The Property

Situated in one of Ilfracombe's most enviable harbourside positions, 11 The Quay is a striking mixed-use commercial property occupying a prominent frontage directly overlooking the historic Inner Harbour. Enjoying uninterrupted views across the Bristol Channel, this no onward chain landmark building presents a rare opportunity to acquire a substantial coastal property combining commercial and residential accommodation in a prime waterfront setting with great return on investment.

The ground floor comprises an established and well-presented hospitality premises, currently arranged as a café and wine bar, benefiting from excellent visibility and strong footfall in this vibrant and highly sought-after location. The space is well configured with a current lease agreed until 2029 and offers an attractive environment for both locals and visitors to enjoy the bustling quay atmosphere.

Arranged over the two upper floors are some beautifully appointed residential accommodation known as "Ultimate Harbourside", offering spacious and stylish living with an emphasis on light and views. The standout feature is the impressive open-plan living area, extending the full length of the property with vaulted ceilings to mirror an upside-down ship and extensive glazing that perfectly frames the harbourside and sea beyond. The property provides a open light modern fitted kitchen with integrated appliances and double ovens, additionally the property has four generous bedrooms with stand out views of the harbourside. A modern 4 piece bathroom and en-suite for the primary bedroom, making it ideal as a substantial private residence or as a high-quality holiday let, for which it has previously proven successful.

Blending contemporary interior design with its iconic maritime setting, 11 The Quay offers flexibility for owner-occupiers, investors or lifestyle buyers seeking to combine home and business in one of North Devon's coastal towns. With its exceptional outlook, prominent position and versatile accommodation, this is a unique opportunity to secure a standout property on Ilfracombe's famous waterfront.
