Bryn Corach Bungalow

Conwy LL32 8NS

£465,000

An exceptional opportunity to acquire a spacious and characterful detached bungalow, set on a split-level plot with expansive views and within easy walking distance of the heart of historic Conwy.

Tenure: Freehold - EPC: D - Council Tax: F

Approached via a gated entrance, the property features a large paved and resin driveway providing ample parking and access to a detached garage/workshop, ideal for storage or hobbies. The grounds are attractively landscaped, offering private and enclosed rear garden areas, mature planting and various seating areas for enjoying the outdoors.

Internally, the home is full of charm, with a blend of modern comfort and traditional features. A welcoming reception hall with ornate spiral staircase, lounge with decorative wood panelling and fireplace with log-burning stove. A formal dining area, ideal for entertaining, connects seamlessly with the living space, while the kitchen/breakfast room offers excellent day-to-day practicality with ample units, integrated appliances and space to dine or relax.

All three bedrooms are bright and well-sized, the bathrooms include a stylish main suite with contemporary tiling and fittings. One of the standout features is the full-length side balcony, offering a peaceful spot to take in views of the surrounding countryside and distant hills. Further benefits include gas central heating, a mix of double and triple glazing.

Location

Tucked-away location, just minutes from the town's shops, harbour, train station and cultural landmarks.

A rare and appealing home in one of North Wales' most desirable towns — early viewing is recommended.
