

Mosslea Road, Penge

Price Guide £350,000

Property Summary

GUIDE PRICE £350,000-£370,000

Propertyworld is proud to offer this beautifully presented and fully renovated one bedroom lower ground floor apartment with sole use of a large private rear garden, ideally positioned on the ever popular Mosslea Road, a quiet no-through road in the heart of Penge. Best of all, the property comes with a share of freehold!

This stunning home has been meticulously upgraded by the current owners and is offered in exceptional condition, making it a perfect first-time purchase. The flat has been fully damp-proofed with guarantees, and further benefits include a new boiler installed in 2023 plus up-to-date gas safety and electrical certificates.

The accommodation is stylish and well proportioned, with a gorgeous front reception room featuring bespoke blinds and space to dine. The generous double bedroom includes fitted wardrobes and a glass patio door opening directly onto a private patio area. There is also additional access to the garden via the kitchen, adding real convenience. The garden itself is a standout feature – a large, private space mainly laid to lawn with mature plants and trees, offering a fantastic blank canvas, with landscaping plans available.

The kitchen is sleek and modern with white worktops, handleless units and integrated appliances including an electric hob, oven and Bosch microwave. The bathroom is a striking contemporary space with a white suite, contrasting tiling, floating vanity unit and mirror. Stripped wooden flooring runs throughout.

Located just minutes from Penge East Station with fast services into London Victoria, and several other stations including Penge West, and directly off Penge High Street with its wide range of restaurants, coffee shops and independent shops. The vibrant Crystal Palace Triangle and Beckenham, plus green spaces including Crystal Palace Park, are also close by.

A superb home with a high-quality finish and excellent location.

Our Vendor Loves...

"The things we like most about the flat are the garden space at the back, in particular the patio/ seating area, and the location- it's on a pedestrianised section of road which makes it very quiet. It's also very close to Penge East station and Crystal Palace Park."
