The Property

Situated in a quiet residential area of Stowmarket, this three-bedroom link-detached house offers a lovely opportunity for those looking for a comfortable place to call home.

The property has a warm and welcoming feel, with a new kitchen and conservatory adding to its appeal. The conservatory provides a lovely additional space to relax and enjoy the garden, whether you're sitting down with a good book or simply enjoying a little peace and quiet.

Outside, the property benefits from a private garden, ideal for enjoying the warmer months, along with a garage fitted with a new electric door and off-road parking for up to three vehicles.

Combining a practical layout, useful parking and a private outdoor space, this property would make a lovely home for a range of buyers. An early viewing is recommended to appreciate what it has to offer.

A note from our valuer:
Being a 10 minuet walk from the leisure centre, 5 minuet drive to the A14, and a 20 minuet walk to the train station, the location is perfect. Being such a quiet area you would have no idea you were so close to local amenities. The new kitchen looks amazing with the integrated under cabinet lighting, makes for a lovely atmosphere.

A note from our vendor:
One of the things I've always loved about living here is how peaceful the area is, with a lovely family friendly feel. The house is warm and cosy, the conservatory is one of my favourite spots to sit with a good book and watch the birds in the garden. Stowmarket has everything you need close by, with four supermarkets, a library, post office, bank and building society, making everyday life really convenient. It's been a lovely place to call home.
