6 Mason Street is a spacious and contemporary four-bedroom home located roughly 10 minutes from Bangor High Street. Set across three floors, the property offers one bedroom on the ground floor, two on the first floor, and another in the converted attic. Each room comes furnished with a bed and ample storage, including wardrobes and bedside tables.

The living room is fully furnished and provides plenty of seating for all tenants, creating a comfortable space to relax and socialise. The kitchen offers generous room for everyone, as well as a washing machine for added convenience.

There is abundant on-street parking outside for tenants with vehicles. Mason Street itself is a quiet location just a short walk from Bangor High Street, where you'll find a wide range of local amenities, including supermarkets, pubs, clubs, shops and cafés. The main University buildings are around 15 minutes away on foot, and the property is also close to beautiful sea views.
