PELHAMS WALK ESHER, KT10

ASKING PRICE: £15,000 PCM

An exceptional and truly unique Grade I listed residence, Waynefleete Tower is one of Esher's most historic and distinguished landmark homes. Originally dating back to the 15th century and set within beautifully landscaped grounds on the banks of the River Mole, this remarkable property seamlessly blends historic grandeur with refined contemporary living.

Arranged over multiple floors, the accommodation offers an impressive balance of character and practicality, featuring expansive reception spaces, elegant bedroom suites, and stunning architectural details throughout. Carefully restored and sympathetically modernised, the home retains an abundance of original charm while incorporating high-specification finishes suited to modern family life.

A striking contemporary glass extension provides exceptional entertaining space with direct access onto the terrace and gardens, creating a wonderful contrast between old and new. The grounds extend to approximately one acre, offering privacy, mature planting, and picturesque riverside views, all behind secure gated access.

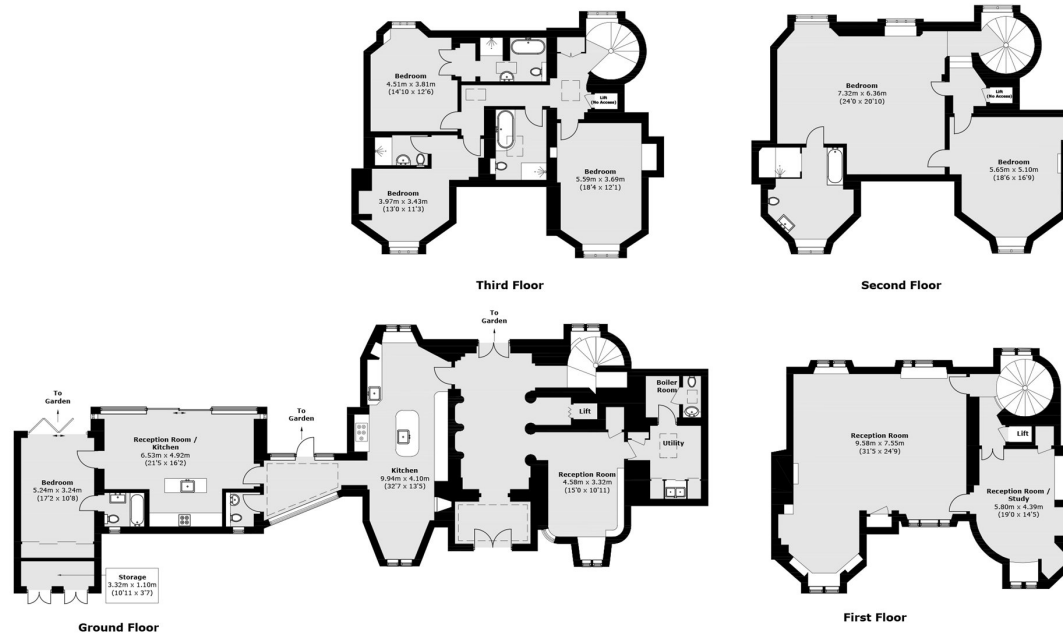

Situated moments from the heart of Esher, the property enjoys convenient access to boutique shops, restaurants, highly regarded schools, and excellent transport links into London, making it a rare opportunity to acquire a historic yet highly functional family home in one of Surrey's most sought-after locations.
