Charnock Bates

Family home in a prime position opposite smith art gallery, Brighouse library, and Rydings Park

Occupying a highly convenient yet surprisingly leafy position in Brighouse, this beautifully presented four-bedroom detached home combines generous family living with impressive eco-conscious credentials.

With underfloor heating throughout both floors, solar panels with battery storage, and thoughtfully designed living spaces opening onto a south-facing garden, the property offers comfort, practicality, and efficiency in equal measure.

Set opposite Smith Art Gallery, Brighouse library, and Rydings Park, the home enjoys an outlook that feels green and established, while remaining within easy reach of excellent commuter links, schools, and amenities. Spacious reception rooms, four well-proportioned bedrooms, and multiple ensembles create a layout perfectly suited to modern family life.

Ground floor

ENTRANCE HALL

A spacious and welcoming entrance hall sets the tone for the accommodation beyond, with underfloor heating continuing throughout the ground floor and a natural flow between the principal living spaces.

LOUNGE

The lounge is both spacious and inviting, centred around an electric fire with a substantial timber beam above. Large windows overlook the front garden and surrounding greenery, enhancing the room's warm and relaxed atmosphere.

The current owner comments:

'I love this room, it's so cosy but still spacious. We've enjoyed a lot of holidays here – it's great for family gatherings.'

KITCHEN & DINING AREA

The kitchen has been designed with both everyday practicality and entertaining in mind, featuring sleek white gloss wall, drawer, and base units paired with contrasting work surfaces. A freestanding central island provides additional preparation space and incorporates power sockets, while the breakfast bar comfortably seats two.

Large windows above the sink overlook the rear garden, filling the room with natural light. Integrated appliances include double NEFF ovens, a BOSCH five-ring induction hob with extractor hood above, fridge, dishwasher, wine cooler, and sink.

An open archway leads through to the dining area, creating a sociable arrangement well suited to family gatherings and entertaining alike.

CONSERVATORY

Opening directly from the dining area, the conservatory provides an additional reception space overlooking the garden. With glazing to three sides and a proper ceiling creating year-round usability, the room feels bright yet comfortable and connects seamlessly to the outdoor terrace through French doors.

STUDY

Positioned to the front of the home, the study enjoys a large window framing views across the front lawn towards the library and museum beyond. Ideal as a home office, reading room, or quiet retreat, it benefits from an attractive leafy outlook that gives the room a calm and settled atmosphere.

UTILITY ROOM

The utility room continues the style of the kitchen with matching wall, drawer, and base units, together with a FRANKE sink and space and plumbing for laundry appliances. A separate external door provides direct access to the rear patio.

First floor

The first floor continues to benefit from underfloor heating throughout, with four well-appointed bedrooms offering flexible accommodation for families of all ages.

DOUBLE BEDROOM

A generous double bedroom fitted with wardrobes and enjoying a pleasant outlook across the front garden towards the library.

ENSUITE

Stylishly finished with stone-effect wall tiling and wood-effect porcelain floor tiles, the ensuite comprises a bath with rainfall shower and handheld attachment, RAK Ceramics WC, floating drawer unit with sink, illuminated mirror, vanity storage, heated towel rail, and linen cupboard. A secondary door also provides access from the landing.

DOUBLE BEDROOM

A further double bedroom with wardrobes that will remain with the property, creating practical ready-to-use accommodation.

DOUBLE BEDROOM

Another spacious double bedroom with fitted wardrobes, drawers, and vanity desk, together with a large front-facing window enjoying leafy views towards the museum and library.

ENSUITE

This modern ensuite features a rainfall shower with handheld attachment, bowl sink mounted on a floating drawer unit, WC, heated towel rail, bathroom cabinetry, and sliding-door wardrobe/linen cupboard.

SINGLE BEDROOM

A comfortable single bedroom with fitted wardrobes and a large window overlooking the attractive surroundings to the front of the property.

Gardens and grounds

FRONT GARDEN

The property occupies a particularly attractive setting opposite the local library, museum, and nearby parkland, creating a sense of openness rarely found so close to the centre of town.

The front garden is mainly laid to lawn and bordered by mature trees and shrubs, while gated access is available down both sides of the house leading to the rear.

'I go for a walk every morning around the park – it's a lovely ritual. Everything looks beautiful, and in spring there are lots of blossoms.'

Current homeowner

REAR GARDEN

To the rear, the south-facing garden provides a low-maintenance yet inviting space. Indian sandstone paving provides a generous area for seating and entertaining, bordered by established planting and shrubbery, while mature wisteria climbs elegantly along the walls.

The property benefits from shared driveway access behind automatic entrance gates, with ownership extending halfway across, leading to the substantial double garage, generous covered car port, and EV charging point (owned outright).

The double garage offers excellent versatility beyond vehicle storage, benefiting from an automatic door, power, lighting, plumbing, and a sink unit with cold water supply – ideal for hobbies, workshop use, or practical family living.

The adjoining car port features an impressive high roofline, creating a versatile covered area that could equally serve as sheltered outdoor entertaining space, a drying area, or a protected play space for children.
