Upon entering, you are welcomed by a bespoke, fully fitted Tom Howley kitchen featuring premium Miele appliances, including an integrated wine fridge. This flows seamlessly into an exceptional 34-foot open-plan reception room, where a large skylight floods the space with natural light, creating a bright and inviting atmosphere. A large sliding door opens onto a terrace, from which a spiral staircase leads to a superb 15' x 11' roof terrace—an ideal sun-trap perfect for entertaining or relaxing. A guest cloakroom completes the raised ground floor. The lower ground floor hosts all three bedrooms and bathrooms. The principal suite is particularly impressive, featuring bespoke built-in wardrobes, a stylish ensuite shower room, and direct access to a patio. A second double bedroom, also with built-in wardrobes, shares access to the same patio, while a third bedroom, a contemporary family bathroom, and a utility cupboard complete this level. Further benefits include underfloor heating throughout, air-conditioning in the reception room, and the rare advantage of having no neighbours above or below. There is also a convenient rear exit to Collins Yard. Positioned in the heart of Islington, Upper Street is renowned for its vibrant yet sophisticated atmosphere. The area offers an outstanding selection of restaurants, cafés, bars, and boutiques, alongside cultural venues such as the Almeida Theatre. The charming Camden Passage is also nearby, famous for its antiques market and independent shops. For outdoor space, residents can enjoy Highbury Fields and the scenic Regent's Canal, both within easy reach. The property benefits from excellent transport links. Angel Station (Northern Line) provides direct access to the City, King's Cross, and the West End, while Highbury & Islington Station offers Victoria Line and Overground services. Numerous bus routes along Upper Street further enhance connectivity across London. Despite its central location, the apartment enjoys a peaceful and tucked-away setting, perfectly balancing tranquillity with immediate access to one of North London's most desirable neighbourhoods.
