- Fantastic waterside location
- Ripe for redevelopment, subject to the requisite statutory consents
 - Two large open halls
 - Outside area to the side
 - No onward chain
- Short walk to the centre of Porthmadog

Nestled just beyond the harbour in the charming town of Porthmadog, this unique property boasts a fantastic waterside location that is sure to capture the imagination of potential buyers or investors. Previously serving as a scout building, this site presents an exciting opportunity for redevelopment, allowing you to create a bespoke residence or commercial space tailored to your vision.

With its prime position by the water, the property offers stunning views and the potential for a tranquil lifestyle, making it an ideal choice for those seeking a peaceful retreat or a vibrant community hub. The surrounding area is rich in natural beauty, with easy access to local amenities, shops, and recreational activities, ensuring that you are never far from the heart of Porthmadog.

As the property is ripe for redevelopment, it is essential to note that any plans will be subject to the requisite statutory consents. This means that you have the chance to bring your ideas to life while adhering to local regulations and guidelines. Whether you envision a modern family home, a stylish holiday let, or a unique business venture, the possibilities are endless.

In summary, this waterside property is a rare find, offering a blank canvas in a picturesque setting. With its rich history and potential for transformation, it is an opportunity not to be missed for those looking to invest in the vibrant community of Porthmadog.
