The Property

This beautifully designed and finished new, two bedroom home is now available to reserve. The ground floor, accessed from the lovely front garden, features a spacious entrance hall, a gorgeous kitchen with brand new appliances, all under warranty and a spacious living/dining room with double doors leading out to the South West facing garden. There is also a downstairs loo. Upstairs, are two substantial double bedrooms with ample space for a large double bed and storage and a divine bathroom featuring delicate alcove lighting and beautiful tiles.

Location

This lovely house is located on Conygre Grove in Filton which is fast becoming a very popular location to live and destination in its own right with a new railway station and a new national standard entertainment arena under construction nearby. There is more investment going in to the area than any other part of the city. It is also very well connected with easy access to the M5 and to Bristol Parkway, a mainline train station with high speed trains to London and other parts of the country.
