

HOLLIES ROAD, EALING

£900,000

Situated within an enviable cul-de-sac just moments from shops, parks, well-regarded schools & stations, this beautifully presented Edwardian terrace offers thoughtfully extended accommodation arranged over three floors. Sympathetically and comprehensively remodelled to a high specification, the house combines period character with contemporary design. At its heart is a generous open-plan kitchen, dining, living space, designed to function as the natural gathering point for family life. A separate reception room provides additional flexibility and a quiet retreat. Upstairs, the principal bedroom benefits from a private balcony, fitted storage and an en-suite bathroom, with two further bedrooms and a well-appointed family bathroom arranged across the first floor. These are complemented by a ground floor cloakroom and utility space and to the rear, a westerly-facing garden extends the accommodation outdoors, enjoying afternoon/evening light and offering a manageable yet inviting space for family use.
