1 Bedroom Flat located in Crawley

We are delighted to offer this freshly renovated, first-floor one-bedroom flat situated in the popular residential area of Bewbush, Crawley.

The property has recently undergone refurbishment and benefits from fresh decoration and new flooring throughout, creating a bright and welcoming home ready for immediate occupation.

The accommodation comprises a good-sized double bedroom, providing a comfortable main bedroom, along with excellent storage space throughout the property. Further benefits include gas central heating and double-glazed windows.

The kitchen is well equipped with an electric hob and oven, washing machine and fridge/freezer, providing everything needed for convenient day-to-day living.

Residents also benefit from communal parking, available free of charge, with plenty of spaces for residents and visitors. A park is situated directly behind the property, offering a pleasant green space close to home.

The property is conveniently located close to local bus stations, schools and a range of amenities, making it an excellent choice for those seeking a comfortable home in a well-connected residential area.
