

Walnut Tree House

Walnut Tree House, Plot at Paynes Farm House, Moor Lane, North Curry, Taunton, TA3 6JZ

SITUATION

North Curry is widely regarded as one of Somerset's most desirable villages, offering an excellent range of local amenities, a thriving community and convenient access to Taunton and the surrounding countryside. The amenities all walkable from this property include a village pub, convenience store with post office, doctor's surgery. The primary school, nursery and village play park are conveniently opposite the property.

Taunton, The County Town, lies seven miles to the West, where you can find a comprehensive range of scholastic, leisure and retail facilities befitting those of a county town and a regional centre. The village has excellent communications with the M5 motorway accessed at Junction 25, which provides easy access to Exeter and Bristol as well as London and the South East. Taunton also has a mainline railway station, providing access to Exeter and Bristol and also to London Paddington in approximately 1hr 45 minutes.

DESCRIPTION

Walnut Tree House site provides a wonderful opportunity to build an attractive detached dwelling with substantial proportions situated in a superb position approached via a shared private road and surrounded on two sides by open fields enjoying a stunning position with a wonderful outlook over the Somerset Levels. Planning permission granted for the demolition of existing barn and construction of new dwelling. Planning reference 24/24/0002. GUIDE PRICE £275,000

There is a separate 4 acre paddock available by separate negotiation.
