Loose Road
Maidstone

Property Description

This five-bedroom semi-detached property occupies a prominent position on Loose Road — a location recognised for offering excellent value compared to others in the local area and for attracting long-term homeowners. The surrounding area provides good access to Maidstone's amenities, including schools, shops, parks, and transport links, making daily life convenient for a wide variety of residents. Close too beautiful countryside walks as well as conservation area.

Loose Road itself hosts a mixture of property types, with semi-detached homes in the wider area demonstrating strong demand and healthy average values making for an ideal investment purchase.

With its generous layout and versatile room arrangement, this home would suit growing families, multi-generational households, commuters, and buyers seeking a long-term residence in a well-established part of Maidstone. The area also benefits from a strong rental market and consistent property performance, adding appeal for investors or those considering future rental potential.

A substantial property in a consistently popular location, Loose Road offers an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking space, convenience, and long-term value.

The property also features a large driveway with parking suitable for multiple vehicles, accessed from the rear of the home. The interior is generous and offers one of the largest spaces available in the local area for the value. A must view property.
