THE PROPERTY

Our vendor has unearthed a large amount of history with regards to number seven and it being the Old Quaker House is just one of its many uses over the last 150+ years. There are some lovely original features on show and with amazing ceiling and door heights, one might be expecting giants to be at home. On the ground floor you will find a large sitting room, a dining room/drawing room, garden room, kitchen/diner and utility room. On the first floor there are four bedrooms and family bathroom. Outside are fine gardens to both the front and rear.

THE LOCATION

So much of what delights about Falmouth is on one's doorstep at 7 Kimberley Place. The waterside is a few minutes' walk away, as is the High Street with its individual shops and galleries.

The town has a brilliant and diverse selection of restaurants and an eclectic mixture of shops, which include national chains, together with quality galleries showcasing local talent.

Falmouth's seafront, on the town's southern side, is about a mile away, with sandy beaches, Henry VIII's Pendennis Castle and access to incredible walks and scenery along the South West Coastal Path.

Nearby train stations (Falmouth Town and Penmere Halt) provide a convenient link to the mainline at Truro for Exeter and London, Paddington.

Falmouth Docks are a major contributor to the town's economy and along with Falmouth University (with campuses in Falmouth and Penryn) and Falmouth Marine School, specialising in traditional and modern boat building, marine engineering and environmental science, ensure an all year round and vibrant community. There are five primary schools and one secondary school in the town and highly regarded independent preparatory and senior schools in Truro.

Falmouth boasts the third largest natural harbour in the world and is renowned for its maritime facilities which offer some of the best boating and sailing opportunities in the country; little wonder the town is consistently ranked as one of the top five places to live in the UK
