This beautifully presented Grade II listed character cottage combines period charm with stylish modern living. The property retains a wealth of original features, including exquisite exposed timber beams and a magnificent Inglenook fireplace, while having been finished to an exceptional standard throughout.

In brief, the well-appointed accommodation comprises; three bedrooms, family bathroom, two reception rooms, dining kitchen, utility area and downstairs WC. Outside, the property enjoys a delightful, low-maintenance rear courtyard garden, together with the prospect of off-road parking for two cars. Further parking is available along the High Street to the front.

The popular and picturesque former market town of Henley-in-Arden provides a range of shopping and recreational facilities, a number of pubs and restaurants, primary and secondary schools, dental practice and doctors' surgery. The property is also conveniently located for major road and rail networks, with the M42 (J3A) and M40 (J16) motorways located just 7 miles and 5 miles, respectively. The railway station ("Henley-in-Arden") offers regular direct trains to Birmingham City Centre and Stratford-upon-Avon.
