To Be Sold

Jack Charles are delighted to offer for sale this enchanting period home, occupying a delightful plot of approximately 0.35 acres within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Enjoying breathtaking countryside views and beautifully landscaped south-facing gardens, this exceptional home seamlessly combines timeless character with comfortable family living in one of Kent's most picturesque settings.

Approached via traditional five-bar gates, the property immediately creates a wonderful first impression with a sweeping gravel driveway, mature planting and an attractive pathway leading to the front entrance. Rich in charm and original features, the accommodation offers a warm and welcoming atmosphere throughout.

The entrance opens into the heart of the home where two beautifully proportioned reception rooms provide flexible living space. The elegant sitting room is full of character, featuring exposed ceiling beams and a striking inglenook-style fireplace inset with a wood-burning stove, creating a cosy focal point for relaxing evenings. The double-aspect dining room enjoys an abundance of natural light and offers an ideal setting for entertaining family and friends, with double doors opening directly into the kitchen/breakfast room.

The farmhouse-style kitchen has been thoughtfully designed to provide both practicality and charm. Fitted with an extensive range of wall and base units, complemented by generous work surfaces and a central island, it offers excellent preparation and storage space alongside integrated appliances and room for a freestanding fridge freezer. A dining area at one end makes this an ideal everyday family space, while doors open directly onto the gardens, effortlessly connecting indoor and outdoor living during the warmer months. An adjoining utility room provides additional storage and appliance space, while a well-appointed cloakroom/shower room completes the ground floor accommodation.

Stairs rise to the first floor where the principal bedroom enjoys attractive views across the gardens and surrounding countryside. This impressive room benefits from a generous dressing room together with an en suite shower room, creating a peaceful and private retreat. Two further well-proportioned bedrooms are served by a family bathroom, making the layout perfectly suited to both families and those looking for guest accommodation.

Without doubt, the gardens are one of the property's finest features. Extending to approximately one-third of an acre and enjoying a sunny southerly aspect, they have been lovingly cultivated to provide colour, texture and year-round interest. Beautifully stocked flower beds frame expansive lawns, whilst mature trees create privacy and a wonderful sense of seclusion. A central pathway gently meanders through the gardens, incorporating an attractive semi-circular terrace, ideal for al fresco dining and entertaining whilst taking full advantage of the idyllic surroundings. To the rear, a charming raised sun deck overlooks a tranquil pond, creating a peaceful spot to relax and enjoy the sights and sounds of nature.

Further enhancing the property's appeal is a useful cellar, currently utilised as a wine store, accessed via external steps to the side of the house.

The property also benefits from a second driveway accessed via Bourne Lane, providing additional parking and leading to a detached garage. Pedestrian gates from this driveway offer convenient access directly through the gardens to the house, making the property equally practical as it is picturesque.

Occupying approximately 0.35 acres in total and surrounded by protected countryside, this is a rare opportunity to acquire a charming period home offering character, privacy, exceptional gardens and an enviable lifestyle in one of the area's most sought-after rural settings.
