FOR SALE

RESIDENTIAL DEVELOPMENT LAND – CONSENT FOR UP TO 200 DWELLINGS

Land off Ansford Hill, Castle Cary, Somerset BA7 7PD

LOCATION

Castle Cary is an attractive historic market town in south Somerset with an appealing variety of independent retailers and facilities and strong road and rail connections to the wider region.

Castle Cary railway station, located on the northern edge of the site is a key junction on the Reading to Taunton line (Berks and Hants line) and the Heart of Wessex line. It connects London Paddington to the South West and serves as a diverging point for trains towards Weymouth.

The A303 is approximately 6 miles to the south which, with the M5, is a major arterial road through the county linking employment hubs across the region.

THE SITE

Extending to approximately 24 acres (9.76 ha) the property, presently in agricultural use, grades down from south to north offering extensive rural views from the northern edge of the town.

A public footpath runs along the eastern boundary, providing an existing link between the town and the railway station.

PLANNING

Outline Outline Consent for the “Erection of 200 dwellings (70 affordable and 130 open market) with associated highways, drainage, landscaping and public open space” was consented on appeal on the 17th May 2022. Planning Ref:19/01840/OUT. Appeal reference 3259668.

A Revered Matters Application has been submitted (24/02946/REM) and this includes several Condition Discharge elements, which will be expected to be agreed upon Grant of Planning, with confirmation and Decision Notices added to the Data Room as the Application progresses. Current progress of the Reserved Matters application can be found on the Somerset Council planning portal.

The current scheme comprises a total of 208,678 sq ft (19,386.71 sq m) of which open market units comprise 133,698 sq ft (12,420.88 sq m).
