Set within a highly sought-after development of just twelve substantial apartments, 4 The Hill offers an exceptional opportunity to reside in one of the area's most desirable addresses. Tucked away just off prestigious Legh Road, the property enjoys a peaceful setting within beautifully maintained grounds. One of only four ground-floor apartments, this superb home benefits from patio doors opening onto a terrace, perfect for alfresco dining or simply enjoying the tranquil surroundings. Its ground-floor position also makes day-to-day living wonderfully convenient, with easy access for shopping, deliveries, and visiting guests.

Inside, the apartment impresses with spacious, well-flowing rooms, providing generous accommodation that easily accommodates larger furniture—ideal for those seeking to downsize without compromise. There are two spacious double bedrooms, each featuring fitted storage, ensuring excellent practicality alongside comfort.

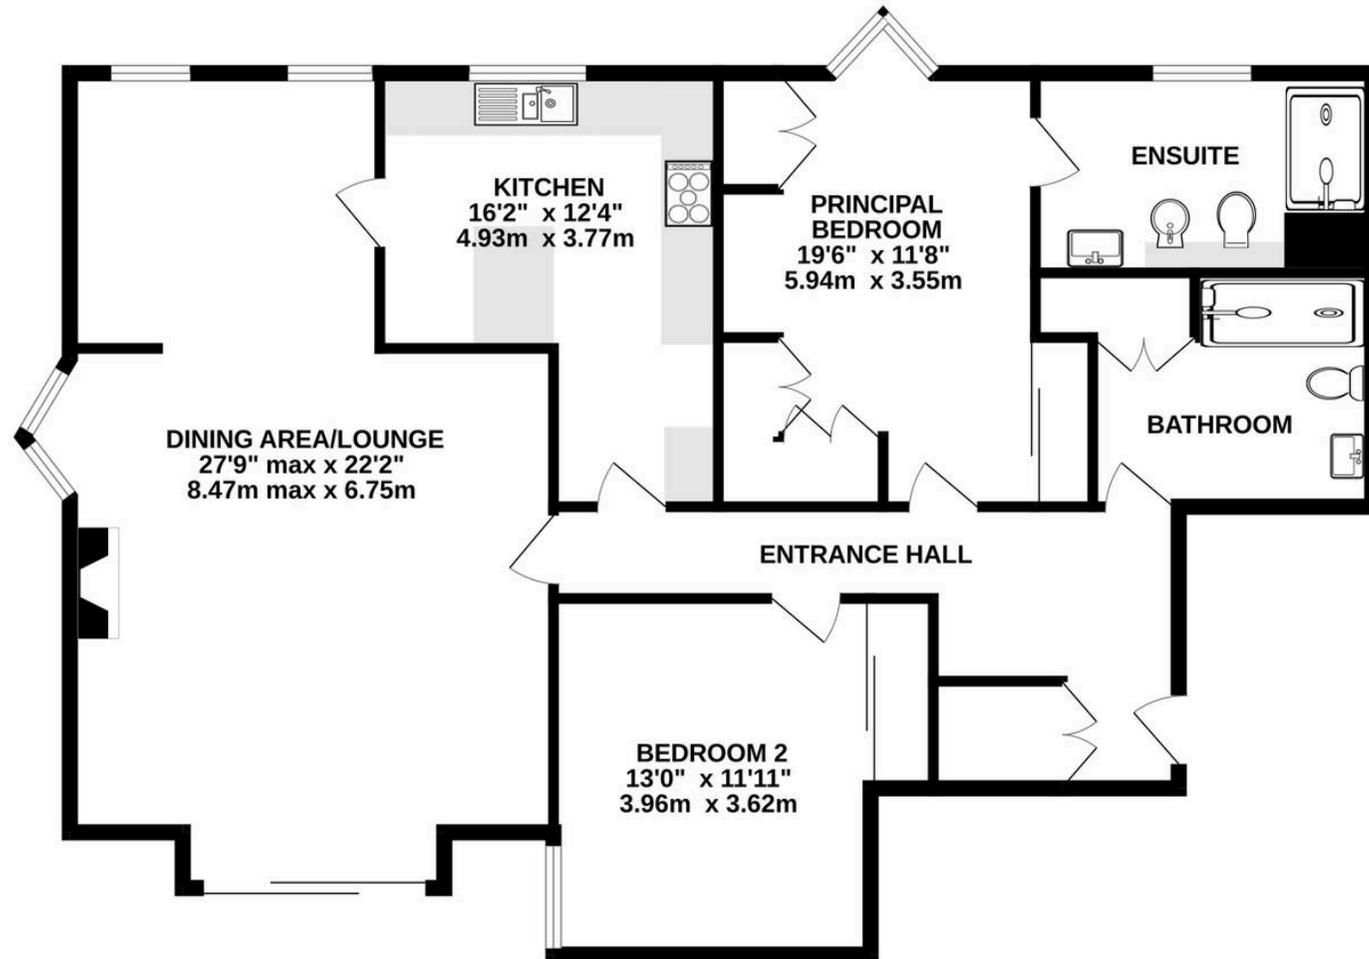

The recently upgraded kitchen is a standout feature, offering excellent storage, casual dining space, and room for an American-style fridge freezer and range cooker. There are two modern bathrooms, including a luxurious and particularly spacious ensuite to the main bedroom, finished to a high standard.

The development further benefits from secure underground parking, a lift serving all floors, and ample additional parking for residents and guests. The communal areas are immaculately presented, and the manicured gardens provide a serene environment for residents to enjoy.

A rare combination of space, convenience, and location, 4 The Hill is an exceptional apartment within an exclusive development.
