Occupying a sought-after position on Middleton Drive in Pinner, this extended four-bedroom semi-detached residence offers a wonderful combination of spacious living areas and flexible accommodation. Upon entry, a welcoming hallway opens to a charming bay-fronted family room, a central reception/dining room, and a versatile ground floor fourth bedroom with a shower and utilities room. The heart of the home is the kitchen, features striking granite worktops and a substantial central island with elegant waterfall-edge detailing, while classic column radiators add character throughout the home. Two ornamental natural stone fireplaces create elegant focal points, complemented by high-quality Amtico and Karndean wood-effect flooring. The home is equally prepared for warmer months, featuring dedicated air conditioning units fitted in the family room and principal bedroom. Upstairs, the first floor boasts three well-proportioned bedrooms including a bay-fronted principal room, serviced by a modern family bathroom. A particular standout feature of this property is the incredible private rear garden measuring approximately 90'7 x 27'2, which houses a substantial shed, ideal for extra storage or a workshop. The property is also being offered with no onward chain.
