Location

Upper Bruntingthorpe is a small hamlet belonging to the parish of Bruntingthorpe which is an attractive, highly sought after village in the Harborough District of Leicestershire. Within the neighbouring village there is a church and a village hall along with two public houses, The Joiners Arms and The Plough Inn. It borders the villages of Peatling Parva, Gilmorton and Kimcote and is just a short drive away from the market town of Lutterworth which offers a number of local amenities such as shops, public houses, supermarkets, and a GP surgery. The village is very well positioned for the commuter with the M1, M6, M69 and A5, all within easy reach. Train stations can be found nearby at Market Harborough and Rugby.

Ground Floor

Approaching the property, you are immediately welcomed by a generous driveway with parking for numerous vehicles, and a single garage. The property's corner position and surrounding countryside create a wonderful first impression, with delightful views stretching across neighbouring fields. Stepping through the front door, you are greeted by a practical entrance porch, perfect for storing coats and shoes before entering the bright and spacious entrance hall. Natural light flows throughout the home, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere from the moment you arrive. To the front of the property is the former double garage, thoughtfully converted into a versatile reception room. Currently used as a home office/Snug, this flexible space could equally serve as a playroom, hobby room or even a fifth bedroom. The generous sitting room is a wonderful place to relax, featuring a charming open fireplace, soft carpeting and a large picture window that floods the room with natural light, while framing the view overlooking open fields. Double doors connect the sitting room to the dining room, creating an excellent entertaining space or allowing the rooms to be opened up for larger family gatherings. The dining room enjoys direct access to the rear garden through double patio doors, seamlessly blending indoor and outdoor living. Also accessed from the entrance hall is a convenient downstairs cloakroom comprising a WC and wash hand basin. Positioned to the rear of the property, the well appointed kitchen offers an excellent range of fitted cupboards and work surfaces, providing plenty of storage. There is space for a dishwasher, fridge and a Rangemaster Nexus induction cooker (available through separate negotiation), while a useful wine rack and generous pantry cupboard add further practicality. A large window overlooks the beautiful south facing garden, making the most of the pleasant outlook. Leading from the kitchen is a separate utility room, housing the boiler, washing machine and additional fridge freezer. A side entrance door provides convenient access to both the outside, as well as the single garage.

First Floor

The first floor is equally impressive, with a large feature window flooding the landing with natural light. The partially boarded loft can be accessed via a fitted ladder, which benefits from lighting and insulation, making it ideal for storage. A generous airing cupboard also provides further storage. There are four well-proportioned bedrooms, three of which are generous doubles. The impressive principal bedroom benefits from fitted wardrobes, an integrated dressing table or desk area and enjoys the lovely countryside views, where you can often spot grazing cattle in the neighbouring fields. The third bedroom also boasts uninterrupted views across the open fields, whilst bedroom two overlooks the south facing rear garden, which enjoys sunshine throughout much of the day. Bedroom four is currently used as a nursery but would make an ideal single bedroom, home office or dressing room. The family bathroom is fitted with a bath and shower over, WC, wash hand basin and built-in storage cupboards. The majority of the home is comfortably carpeted, including all bedrooms, the sitting room, dining room and the converted reception room, creating a warm and homely feel throughout.

Outside

Outside, the south facing rear garden has been thoughtfully designed with multiple stone resin patio seating and outdoor dining areas. The remainder of the garden is mainly laid to lawn and is ideal for gardening enthusiasts, or simply to appreciate the tranquil setting. This wonderful family home combines generous living accommodation, flexible reception space and rural views, all within the desirable village of Upper Bruntingthorpe.
