IF YOU LIVED HERE

Leyton's increasingly popular social hub of Francis Road - recently part-pedestrianised - is literally at the end of your street and home to an ever-increasing range of independent stores, cafes and foodie pubs. From the homemade delights of Marmelo Kitchen and Yardarm deli and wine bar to the cosy environs of the Northcote Arms and tantalising coffee at Strange Brew, you are sure to find a favourite spot.

WHAT ELSE?

- Parents will be delighted to know you have twenty primary/secondary schools in a one-mile radius, all rated 'Good' or better by Ofsted and including the 'Outstanding' Newport Primary, just four minutes' walk.
- If it is nature you are craving then the wide, open green space of Bushwood and Wanstead Flats is eighteen minutes' walk or a six minute cycle away. Its vast expanse, once the chosen hunting grounds of Henry VIII, is the perfect place to leave city life behind.
