Horfield, Bristol, BS7 8TJ

£2,300 Per month

 Available Next Academic Year 2026/27 **

This warm, welcoming and well-located 4-bedroom student property set right on one of Bristol's most vibrant and characterful street offers spacious bedrooms, a modern kitchen with plenty of storage, and a cosy shared living area perfect for downtime, study sessions or catching up with housemates after a long day on campus.

Living on Gloucester Road means you'll never be far from anything from quirky cafés and independent shops to late-night eateries, supermarkets and great transport links straight to both universities and the city centre. It's an ideal location for students who want practicality, personality and convenience all in one place.

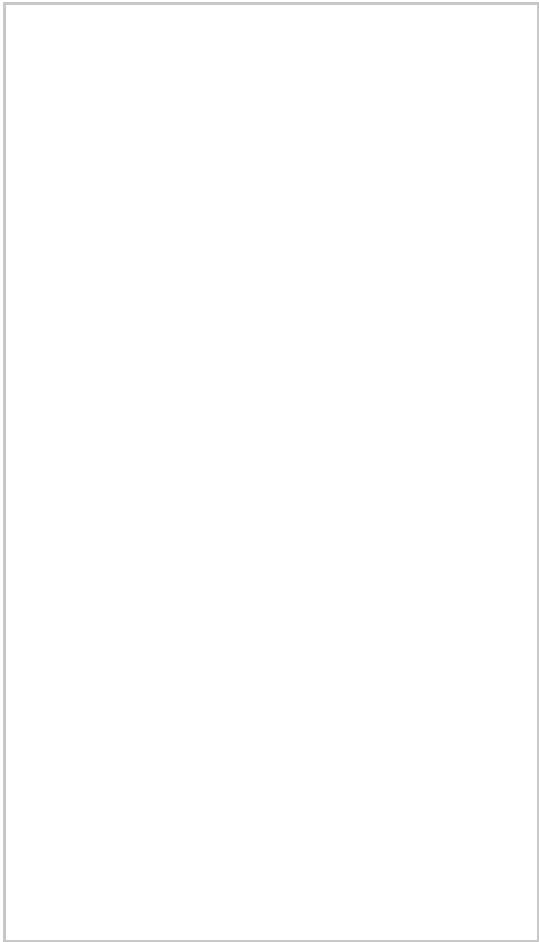

The property provides the perfect balance between social living and personal space. Each bedroom is well-proportioned with good natural light, and the communal areas make it easy to feel at home from day one. Whether you love the buzz of the local area or prefer a quiet night in, this student home ticks every box.
