DESCRIPTION

Chez Nous is a traditional detached bungalow of brick construction which requires updating throughout. The bungalow offers spacious accommodation with excellent potential as a retirement home or family home, a short walk from Leyburn's marketplace.

The property is entered into a reception hall which provides access to the ground floor rooms. There is a large living room with a gas fireplace and a window to the front, a dining room with a staircase leading up to the first-floor bedroom, and a large kitchen with a range of fitted units and appliances including a double oven, a dishwasher and a fridge. The kitchen provides access to the single garage.

There are three bedrooms, each with fitted furniture and one of which could be used as an office and a ground floor house bathroom with a modern suit comprising a WC, hand basin in vanity unit, bath and a walk in shower.

To the first floor is a converted attic room which offers potential as a fourth bedroom and has eaves storage.

Externally, the property has a delightful front garden and large rear garden which is planted with paths through. Usefully attached to the property is the large single garage which could be converted and incorporated into the accommodation if required.
