Outside

A particular feature of this property is the plot on which it sits! The fabulous rear garden has been landscaped and is laid largely to artificial turf. From the patio area, there is access to a large quality Summer house, (currently used a Gym, but is extremely versatile in its use), and a covered area with a hot tub, which is available by negotiation, both of which provide a pleasant area for the purposes of relaxation and / or entertaining. Additionally, there is access to the double garage. Follow the steps up the garden, and you'll find another large Summer house which has wired-in surround sound and an electrically operated projector screen. Behind the summer house, down the embankment, which is another large area that could be landscaped further, there are two greenhouses. To the front of the property is a large driveway and a further area of artificial turf.
