OUTDOOR SPACES

The current owners have completely remodelled the gardens which continue from the front of the property to the side and rear and are now extremely well stocked with flowers, shrubs and trees including fruit trees.

A pedestrian gate leads off Vicarage Hill with a few steps and a paved pathway leading to the front door. The borders are well stocked with a variety of flowers and shrubs and features an attractive footbridge into the main garden. The pathway extends into a paved patio area to the front of the house, ideal for seating and enjoying the views of the garden and countryside beyond. A concrete pathway continues from the patio area with a retaining wall leading around to the side and rear of the property.

The remainder of the garden is laid to lawn with well bedded borders and an arch leading through to a further garden area overlooking Vicarage Hill. An attractive tree lined pathway with stepping sleepers lead from this area back into the main garden.

There is further area which enjoys a pond with stunning views towards Badby Woods. This in turn leads to a substantial vegetable garden with several raised beds, a greenhouse and two good sized sheds, one of which is only 3 years old and is light and power connected.

The concrete path from the patio area to the front leads to the rear of Highfield, where there is an area to store wood and garden equipment, and also features a watering system. The pathway continues to the rear where there is a further seating area and steps leading up to a lawned area, ideal for hanging washing.

Garage

There is a single garage situated within a short distance away and can be accessed from Vicarage Hill.

LOCATION

Highly valued by its residents and visitors, Badby is a beautiful rural village nestled in a valley surrounded by undulating countryside. Situated close to the beautiful Fawsley estate, it is famous for Badby

Wood which enjoys a magnificent bluebell display in the Spring.

The village is popular with walkers who can enjoy many superb countryside walks along the Nene Way and Knightley Way public footpaths.

The village boasts amenities to include a traditional village pub, The Maltsters Country Inn with a bar and restaurant and a small village café (Bluebell Café). There is an active village hall boasting a variety of activities and societies, and a small play area for children. In the heart of the community is Badby village pre-school and primary school, a traditional school dating back over 100 years.

Badby is conveniently located off the A361 leading North to Daventry which is approximately 4 miles away for your day to day shopping needs, or continue to the A45 leading to Northampton and J16 of the M1 motorway. Travelling in a Southerly direction from Badby will take you to Banbury approximately 15 miles away with access to the M40.

There are bus services from Badby serving Banbury and Daventry. From there you can easily connect for buses to Northampton and Rugby and then further afield. The local rail stations are Long Buckby, Rugby, Northampton and Banbury, with services reaching London, Birmingham and the rest of the country. Daventry Area Community Transport (DACT) scheme offers transportation for the elderly and disabled for hospital appointments or other medical purposes.
