An opportunity to acquire this five-bedroom 1930s detached family home, positioned in Forest Hill that has well-proportioned accommodation throughout.

The house has character and charm, and benefits from a wide south-east facing private rear four-tiered garden a separate garage /drive fitted with EV charger and security post. Ringmore Rise also offers ample parking availability.

To the ground floor at the front of the house, the reception room features high ceilings, 2 chimney breast alcoves (reception room and dining areas) and bay window with stained glass. To the rear of the downstairs, the kitchen/dining room spans the full width of the house and provides a setting for both everyday family life and entertaining. There is stained glass detailing within the French doors and the room also benefits from high ceilings with doors leading through to the garden. The kitchen offers a range of worktop space and cabinetry, (including a purpose-built larder). The kitchen/diner is complemented by tiled flooring and glass splashbacks. There is also the benefit of a fifth bedroom on this floor.

To the upstairs of the house you have four bedrooms, the family bathroom has been styled in keeping with the homes character. There is also a separate shower room and wash hand basin with a frosted window providing natural light and ventilation.

The property also offers exciting potential to extend into the loft (subject to the usual planning permissions), presenting an excellent opportunity to further increase living space and long-term value.

One of the standout features of Ringmore Rise is the views it offers. Thanks to its elevated position, many houses on the street boast panoramic views of the London skyline, with landmarks like The Shard and St. Paul's Cathedral visible in the distance.

The house is situated just a short walk from the Horniman Museum and Gardens, a beloved local landmark.

The abundance of nearby parks makes this area perfect for residents who enjoy spending time in nature or engaging in outdoor exercise.

Ringmore Rise is well connected, Forest Hill Station (located approximately 0.8 mile) offers Overground services that connect to Canada Water, Shoreditch, and Highbury & Islington, making it easy to reach central and East London. National Rail services from the same station can take you into London Bridge in under 15 minutes. Additionally, several bus routes serve the area, linking to nearby neighbourhoods like Dulwich, Peckham, and Sydenham. Alongside the train links you will find several bus routes which includes routes 122 and 185 to Crystal Palace and Victoria to name a few Forest Hill's high street is in proximity and features a variety of independent shops, cafes, and restaurants. Popular spots like Canvas & Cream and the Butchery reflect the area's artistic and foodie culture. Sainsbury's in Forest Hill provides convenient grocery shopping, while Lordship Lane in nearby East Dulwich offers an excellent selection of boutique shops, restaurants, and bars. The neighbourhood provides both daily essentials and charming spots for leisurely outings.
