Barton-under-Needwood, Burton-on-Trent, DE13 8LQ

Available with no upward chain and set within low maintenance landscaped gardens, this attractively priced bungalow presents an ideal opportunity for the traditional bungalow buyer or a family requiring three bedrooms.

£250,000

John German

This well presented bungalow home is ideal for a bungalow buyer, downsizer or family buyer wanting a three bedrooms. It is set in a lovely village location in walking distance from shops, schools, doctors, pharmacy, a choice of pubs, places to eat and countryside walks. This really is an ideal contender for any buyer and falls into the John Taylor catchment.

With a gravelled low maintenance frontage, the entrance door opens into a dining hall which is a light room courtesy of its dual aspect, having doors off to the kitchen and lounge.

The kitchen has been refitted and upgraded, equipped with a range of units, an integrated oven and hob plus a door out to the patio. We understand the owners intention is to include the additional white goods.

The lounge offers an ideal space to relax with a fireplace, a window framing views to the front and a door to the inner hall.

There is a shower room and the advantage of three bedrooms with the master bedroom having French doors opening out to the garden.

To the rear garden has a paved patio ready for garden furniture and a lawn.

There is a shared drive between this property and the neighbouring bungalow. Double gates at the bottom of the garden give access an area currently housing a shed, which if removed, would be possible to reinstate parking/garage space there.
