14, The Old Brewery, Furneux Pelham, Buntingford, Hertfordshire, SG9 0TS Offers over £600,000

A most impressive four double bedroom character property which is superbly presented throughout. This is a stunning conversion of the former Victorian Rayments of Pelham Brewery originally built in 1869 and converted by a renowned local builder circa 2003.

The accommodation which extends to over 2,000 square feet has double glazing and oil fired central heating.

On the ground floor: Entrance hall, downstairs cloakroom, large square sitting room with a feature fireplace, separate dining room, modern fitted kitchen/breakfast room with appliances integrated.

On the first floor: Guest room with an en-suite shower room, two further double bedrooms and a luxury bathroom which also has a shower.

On the second floor: The master bedroom suite comprising a generously proportioned bedroom with a vaulted ceiling, two walk-in wardrobe cupboards and a luxury en-suite shower room.

The Old Brewery has lovely landscaped gardens to the front which are maintained by one of the residents who is a trained horticulturist. This property has a parking space in the front garden plus space in front of the garage. The rear garden is small and easy to maintain. It enjoys a sunny westerly aspect and overlooks the River Ash and farmland beyond.

Furneux Pelham is a charming village surrounded by gently sloping fields. It boasts a well regarded primary school, village hall, parish church and a locally owned public house/restaurant with a small playground attached.

The market town of Bishop's Stortford is approximately eight miles away and has a mainline railway station with excellent commuter service to Liverpool St. Station.

Buntingford is another popular destination for shopping. It is located just under six miles to the west. Access to junction 8 of the M11 motorway is located to the east of Bishop's Stortford, approximately nine miles away.

Service Charges

Each of the twenty two householders have a £1 share in the company which was set up to run and maintain the communal areas and facilities that the residents enjoy.

All of the front gardens, lawned areas, flower beds and trees are maintained by a local gardener who does an excellent job of keeping everything looking good. Bins and recycling are discreetly hidden away and cleaned regularly. Lighting of these areas is also included.

There is an annual charge for these services which is £775 for the current year.

History Of The Old Brewery

The Rayments Of Pelham Brewery was built in 1869 and is now over 150 years old.

The business was purchased by Greene King in the 1980's and In the following years they moved the operation to their head quarters in Suffolk, eventually ceasing the brewing of their eponymous bitter.

After that The Old Brewery became a distribution hub for the company before being sold in 2000 to a renowned local developer Grange Builders. Grange carried out an award winning project to restore and convert the Grade Two Listed brewery and associated buildings. Alongside this they constructed a further seven character houses in a style sympathetic to the original site which incorporate a number of interesting architectural features.

Local Pub

The Tap, formerly The Brewery Tap is a locally owned and ran free house serving a variety of local and regional beers, wines and ciders. It is a gastro pub with a pizza oven and excellent and varied menu. There is an excellent beer garden with covered dining areas and a small children's playground.

Village School

Furneux Pelham Church Of England School is a small village school with an excellent reputation. It was rating good by OFSTED at it's last assessment in February 2025

Church

The clock tower of St Mary The Virgin Church displays an interesting motto which reads 'Time flies, mind your business'. The vaulted ceiling with it's many charming painted angels attracts visitors from all around the world.
