DESCRIPTION

Old Puesdown Inn is a handsome property constructed from Cotswold stone in the mid 19C, with period features including sash windows, and exposed beams. It is located at a strategic point close to the old Puesdown Turnpike on the Gloucester-Oxford Highway, a key route that continued to London. It was extended later in the 19C and was a popular staging post for both coaches and then motorists for many years. The Inn occupies a large plot just north of the A40, with direct views across unspoiled country, and is within an easy drive of many iconic Cotswold destinations including Cirencester, Burford, Stow-on-the-Wold, and Cheltenham.

SITUATION & AMENITIES

Old Puesdown Inn enjoys a location that can be accessed from many major centres, including Bristol, Oxford, Birmingham, and London, in a reasonable journey time. It is situated on a ridge in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty between the villages of Hazleton and Compton Abdale, with glorious views across the surrounding countryside and direct access from the Inn to one of the many footpaths and bridleways throughout the area. Nearby Compton Abdale is a tranquil and unspoilt village, situated in a valley to the south.

Northleach is the nearest centre and is an attractive market town, which offers excellent day-to-day facilities including two highly regarded pubs, The Sherborne Arms and The Wheatsheaf Inn. There is an active community within the town and a number of shops arranged around the marketplace include a wine bar, a post office, a butcher, a chemist and a bakery. The town also benefits from a doctor's surgery, a junior school and nursery.

Cheltenham is about 10 miles to the west and offers a wide range of shops, along with theatres and a cinema. The town hosts many popular events including an annual cricket festival, horse racing including the Gold Cup, and music, food, and literary festivals.

The historic Roman town of Cirencester, often referred to as the Capital of the Cotswolds, can be reached via the nearby Fosse Way (A429), which also provides direct access to Stow on the Wold and the Midlands. The A40 links Cheltenham and Oxford and provides access to the M40 at Junction 8 for London, the M25 and the national motorway network. Airports at Birmingham, Bristol, and Heathrow.

There are also regular train services to London Paddington from Kemble, Kington and Charlbury. Private schools in the area include Hatherop Castle, Rendcomb College, Beaudesert Park as well as the many schools and colleges in Cheltenham and Oxford.
