Description

This presents a most wonderful opportunity to purchase a Grade II Listed stone farmhouse together with ancillary buildings including stables, an office and further accommodation set in approximately 5.20 acres of land.

Moore's Cottage Farm is delightfully situated in a very private and peaceful location at the bottom of a bridlepath. Its seclusion and outstanding views across rolling countryside are a special feature of the property yet it is only about 2 miles from the sought after market town of Ashbourne.

Moore's Cottage Farm takes its name from the Georgian Irish lyric poet Thomas Moore, a friend of Byron, who published his most famous Irish Melodies during the 1810s when he lived in the Farmhouse.

Moore's Cottage Farm

The principal dwelling is an attractive well proportioned stone farm house Grade II Listed with very attractive gardens and prominently situated with outstanding views across rolling countryside.

The rooms are well proportioned and in particular the Sitting Room/Library is an outstanding room for entertaining. Additionally the Conservatory is another space for entertaining or simply enjoying the garden and views.

The front aspect of the property faces south where the main access door leads into the Formal Dining Room having delightful feature stone fire place with brick inset and cast iron woodburning stove. Internal door off the Dining Room leads to the Sitting Room also south facing with open fire and charming built-in cupboards which flank either side of the chimney breast.

The Sitting Room is open plan through to the Library having built-in book shelving and window to side. Accessed from the dining room is central hallway with the staircase winding to the first floor galleried landing and down to the Cellar with barrel vaulted ceiling

The Breakfast Kitchen has a range of wall drawer and base units with granite work surface over to three walls, integrated electric hob, inset sink and drainer, access to larder having fridge freezer space and built-in shelving. Glazed door leading through to the Conservatory, a stunning room with delightful stone floor and bi fold doors opening out onto the patio seating area within the garden.

To the north side of the property is a further access door leading into the Side Hall which provides hanging space and access to the Ground Floor WC and the Utility Room with a further range of wall and base units with inset sink and plumbing for washing machine. And leading through to the boiler room having further shelving and the base mounted central heating boiler.

First Floor

The central galleried landing provides access to all four bedrooms and the family bathroom. Bedroom One is the largest of the bedrooms and is south facing with three double built-in wardrobes and enjoying stunning views across the land to the rolling countryside beyond. Bedroom Two also a generous double room is south facing enjoying the same open views. Bedroom Three has been fitted with an ensuite WC and basin, and separate built-in shower cubicle and built-in storage cupboard. Bedroom four is the smallest of the rooms currently used as a home office but large enough to accommodate a double bed and has a built-in double wardrobe. The Family Bathroom has been fitted with a four piece bathroom suite including panelled bath, vanity wash hand basin low flush WC and bidet, having part tiled walls.

Buildings

Within the grounds of the principal residence are two stone built stables with a functional office above, a further multifunctional building which could be used as office space or residential accommodation, including kitchen, shower room, basin and WC, sitting room and large first floor room used as offices/bedrooms. There is an adjoining greenhouse.

Garden and Grounds

The property is accessed off Slack Lane which is a no through road with no passing traffic. It benefits from a right of way along the private access driveway and leads to the hardstanding providing off-road parking for a number of vehicles..

The delightfully sculpted gardens surround the house and are predominantly lawns with a lovely paved seating area to the west of the property directly outside the conservatory. There is a most useful caged vegetable garden within and a number of fruit trees.

Land

The land is all laid to pasture and comprises of three fields with access both from the driveway and from Slack Lane. The field nearest to the house has an attractive pond and wildlife area which complements the setting of the property. The land in all extends to approximate 5.20 acres with additional land at separate negotiation.

Please note that part of the land has not been fenced however the vendor has committed to erecting this by completion,
