A charming and characterful two-bedroom first-floor apartment, superbly located in the heart of Stratford-upon-Avon's historic Old Town, with allocated private parking and the significant benefit of a newly extended 999 year lease and 50% share of the freehold.

Occupying a corner position within a historic Grade II Listed building conversion, this attractive apartment enjoys an enviable location overlooking Holy Trinity Church and is within easy walking distance of the Royal Shakespeare Theatre, independent shops, cafés, restaurants and the many amenities of central Stratford-upon-Avon.

The apartment is accessed via a small communal entrance hall and has its own private front door. The second bedroom is currently used as a dining room and offers useful flexibility as a bedroom, guest room, study or home office.

A particularly valuable feature of this centrally located property is the allocated private parking space to the rear, together with the potential to obtain an on-street residents' parking permit.
