INTRODUCTION

Dunedin B&B is an attractive and well-established hospitality business situated within Broadford, one of the largest, most popular and accessible settlements on the famous Isle of Skye. The location of Skye brings strong year-round tourist demand, representing an excellent opportunity to acquire a characterful business in a prime Scottish tourist destination.

The property occupies a prominent roadside position on Shore Road in Broadford, close to the village centre and overlooking the stunning Broadford Bay. Broadford is widely regarded as a key service hub for the island, offering a range of local amenities and acting as a gateway to Skye's principal visitor attractions, including the Cuillin Mountains, Sleat Peninsula and the wider southern Skye coastline.

The B&B offers a welcoming and comfortable environment, combining traditional character with modern presentation to deliver a well-rounded guest experience. The accommodation currently comprises three en-suite letting bedrooms, a breakfast room with seating for approximately eight covers, a domestic kitchen, owner's living room, laundry and ancillary storage/ workshop space.

In addition, there is a separate studio unit, previously utilised as owner's accommodation. The studio has a kitchenette and is able to accommodate a double bed, there is also an adjoining room suitable for a single bed or study area.

Externally the Dunedin B&B benefits from wonderful, large garden areas as well as private on-site parking for up to 6 cars

From a business perspective, Dunedin B&B offers an excellent lifestyle opportunity, with scope for a new owner to further develop trade and extend the operating season. There is the opportunity to use the studio as an additional letting bedroom, should it not be required as owners accommodation, subject to the necessary consents.

The Dunedin B&B is being offered to the market for sale as the current owners' wish to retire from the trade.

THE PROPERTY

The Dunedin B&B is of traditional construction beneath a pitched slate roof, with its accommodation arranged over ground and first floor.
