We have tried to make sure that these particulars are accurate but, to a large extent, we have to rely on what the seller tells us about the property. Once you find the property you want to buy, you will need to carry out more investigations into the property than it is practical or reasonable for an estate agent to do when preparing sales particulars. For example, we have not carried out any kind of survey of the property to look for structural defects and would advise any homebuyer to obtain a surveyor's report before exchanging contracts. If you do not have your own surveyor, we would be pleased to recommend one. We have not checked whether any equipment in the property (such as central heating) is in working order and would advise homebuyers to check this. You should also instruct a solicitor to investigate all legal matters relating to the property (e.g. title, planning permission, etc) as these are specialist matters in which estate agents are not qualified. Your solicitor will also agree with the seller what items (e.g. carpets, curtains, etc) will be included in the sale.

 GUIDE PRICE £475,000- £495,000 ***

A three bedroom detached house in a superb Old Town location, offering excellent scope for modernisation and the opportunity to create a fantastic family home. The property has been extended to the rear and provides particularly good living accommodation, including a front sitting room, separate dining room opening into a garden room and a kitchen with an adjoining lean-to providing access to the rear garden and garage. A ground floor cloakroom completes the ground floor. Outside, there is a good sized lawned front garden, driveway and garage, while the rear garden is a particularly attractive feature, being of a good size and enjoying a westerly aspect. Although the property would benefit from updating and modernisation, it offers a great combination of space, potential and location. Situated in the ever popular Old Town, the property is particularly well placed for a number of highly regarded schools and their catchment areas, whilst also being close to local shops, amenities and excellent transport links. A rare opportunity to modernise and personalise a detached family home in one of Eastbourne's most sought-after locations.
