27 Mongleath Road, Falmouth, TR11 4PN

Guide Price £335,000

Situated within popular 'tree-lined' Mongleath Road, is this 3/4 bedroom semi-detached family home, occupying a level plot with enclosed south-facing garden. The property benefits from the garage having been incorporated into the living accommodation, providing an additional reception room or ground floor double bedroom. Built by Gray Connolly in the 1960's, these versatile properties lend themselves very well to reconfiguration and extension, with the accommodation currently comprising on the ground floor: entrance hallway, dual aspect living/dining room, kitchen with utility extension and second reception room/bedroom 4. On the first floor are 3 bedrooms and a family bathroom. The area of Boslowick is located in an extremely convenient position on the outskirts of Falmouth, close to Penmere railway station, local shops, primary schools, and within walking distance of Swanpool Beach and nature reserve. Being sold with no onward chain - viewing highly recommended.
