HESSLE

Hessle is a sought after residential town, 5 miles west of Hull and is part of the East Riding of Yorkshire. It is on the north bank of the Humber Estuary where the iconic Humber Bridge is located. The attractive Hudson Court complex is situated in well tended grounds off Barrow Lane , just a short walk (approximately 7 minutes) to Hessle Square and the picturesque town centre with its variety of restaurants , bars , boutiques, hairdressers and beauty therapists, as well as several renowned, independent retail stores.

Transport to and from Hessle is convenient, with good access to main roads such as the A15, A63 and M62 (via the A63). It also has a railway station with hourly services to and from Hull and to destinations such as Doncaster and York. Regular bus services provided by East Yorkshire Buses link the town with the surrounding villages of Willerby, Anlaby, Kirk Ella, West Ella, North Ferriby and Swanland. There are many amenities in Hessle including supermarkets, chemists, hairdressers, cafes, bars, restaurants and individual retail outlets such as Mimis (a lady's fashion boutique). There is a commercial centre off the A63. Sports clubs including football, cricket and rugby are all located in the town. A golf club is located at nearby Raywell.

Hessle Foreshore and the Humber Bridge

For those seeking outdoor activities, Hessle offers a range of things to do. Nature lovers can take a stroll along the picturesque Hessle Foreshore, a tranquil spot along the Humber estuary. The foreshore is a haven for birdwatchers and those looking to enjoy a peaceful walk with views of the Humber Bridge, one of the UK's most iconic landmarks. The area is ideal for picnics, fishing, and photography, particularly.

HUDSON COURT

Hudson Court is a retirement housing complex situated on Barrow Lane in Hessle, East Yorkshire. Built in 2000, it comprises 34 flats, offering one and two-bedroom options. The development is managed by FirstPort and provides facilities such as a communal lounge, a laundry room, guest accommodations and attractive grounds . A part-time house manager is available on-site, and a 24 hour Careline alarm service ensures residents' safety.
